COMMUNITY NEWS

The City of Elba held its annual Christmas dinner Thursday, Dec. 4, for city employees and their families. This annual event is held at the Recreation Center and offers the employees an opportunity to enjoy one another's fellowship outside of work. It also allows the city leaders to say thanks for all the hard work the employees endure throughout the year. Above, Will Moore and his daughter, Paige, were all smiles upon reaching the end of the food line while the picture to the left captures others still waiting to get their fixings of grilled chicken, green beans, baked potato, roll and pound cake covered with strawberries.

Santa's annual stop at the Mularz house doesn't take near as long as it did years ago when the girls were young, but looking back I will have to admit that the old guy dressed in red was pretty good to this Dad. He almost never left anything that had to be put together in the wee hours of the morning, but always made sure that everyone got what they needed and filled the stockings with candy and fruit. Yes, I must admit that Santa has been a friend for years and has helped this old Dad many times.

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH

 The Elba Tigers broke for the holidays with a 7-5 record after winning last week over Straughn and dropping a last-second decision to Brantley. The Tigers staged a furious rally to get past Straughn in an overtime thriller, while they blew a 12-point lead in the second half in their loss to Brantley. If the Tigers can establish a measure of consistency on the offensive end of the court they could win a bunch of games when they head back into the gym, but after twelve games Elba seems to always take off for five of six minutes at a time in almost every game they play, and it almost always comes back to haunt them. This Tiger team is one of the best in years, but until it begins to play four quarters each and every night out it will be little more than a 500 club.

 The Elba Lady Tigers claimed their fourth straight Zion Chapel Christmas Tournament title last weekend, and when one stops to consider that over the course of four years the team's roster has totally changed, it is really quite an accomplishment for Coach Carney and his girls. This year's team got off to a slow start and still only has a .500 record, but the Lady Tigers getting better and better and now appear to be ready to have another winning season. My guess is that the Elba girls have a lot of wins left and will be fun to watch after the holidays.

 The Montgomery Advertiser announced its All-State high school football team last week and included on the list was Elba's Jessie Thigpen. Jessie was the strongest player on the Tiger roster and at 6-2, 262 was a force to be reckoned with on the field. This past season Thigpen got better and better as he gained experience and became more dedicated to being the best player he could be. One thing about the list that was interesting was that the "3A" All-State list looked more like the Region 1 All-Stars. Elba fans had told everyone that the region the Tigers were in was the toughest in the state, and when the All-State list came out last week it included 11 first team all-state selections and eight players that received honorable mention. That is proof enough for me!

 Coach Brian Weeks and his junior high basketball teams wrapped up another successful season last week as the seventh grade Tigers closed with a 10-2 record and the eighth graders came in with an 8-4 slate. Coach Weeks has worked with the younger players for years and always does a great job of teaching the players and leading them to many wins on the court. Thanks, Coach, for many years of hard work and dedication to the basketball program at Elba High.

 In closing....I would like to say a heartfelt Merry Christmas to all my friends and everyone that lets me share my family and my thoughts with them every week here in my column. I hope the holidays will bring you closer to the ones you love.

Claim fourth straight title

Lady Tigers win Zion Chapel tourney

The Elba Lady Tigers competed in the Zion Chapel Christmas Tournament last weekend at Zion Chapel High School and continued their dominance in the annual event by claiming the tournament championship for the fourth straight year.

The Lady Tigers opened the four-team tournament with a 55-34 win over Kinston, then downed the highly-rated Arton Lady Cats 45-41 in the finals to take home the title and even their record at 5-5 on the season. Following are highlights of both games:

ELBA 55 KINSTON 34

The Elba Lady Tigers pulled ahead in the third quarter and then pulled away late to down the Kinston Lady Bulldogs 55-34, in opening round action on Friday afternoon.

Elba had a hard time finding the basket in the opening stanza and trailed 8-3 after one quarter, and even though the Lady Tigers did pick up the pace on offense in the second stanza it made little difference as the Lady Bulldogs remained in command and went in at the half with a 25-15 advantage.

Elba was determined to make a run in the third quarter and used a fast-break offense and a sticky full-court press on defense to throttle the Lady Bulldogs as the Lady Tigers went on a 16-0 run to grab a 41-25 lead. The Lady Tigers continued their fast paced attack in the fourth quarter and never looked back as they rolled to the wild 55-34 win.

LaFondra Thigpen scored 17 points and Tunisia Thigpen scored 16 points to lead Elba, while Brittany Hunko and Kaleigh Sanders both scored 12 points for Kinston.

ELBA 45 ARITON 41

The Elba Lady Tigers battled back from a five-point fourth quarter deficit to defeat the Arton Lady Cats 45-41, in the championship game on Saturday night.

Elba jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead on a three-pointer by Ayonna Proctor and owned a 7-4 lead with 4:39 remaining in the first quarter after a basket by Tunisia Thigpen, only to see Arton stage a rally and go on a 9-2 run to pull ahead 13-9 with 1:25 left in the stanza. A three-pointer by Tunisia Thigpen with 1:02 remaining helped Elba pull within 13-12, but the Lady Cats refused to surrender their lead and scored the first five points of the second quarter to up their lead to 18-12 with 6:48 left in the half. Tunisia Thigpen drained a long three-pointer and later added two free-throws as Elba caught Arton at 18-18 with 5:50 left in the half, and when Ashleigh Waddail scored from inside the Lady Tigers were back in front at 20-18 with 1:01 still remaining in the quarter. Arton snapped its six-minute scoring drought late in the half and regained the lead at 21-20 with a three-point play to Starria Baxter, but Elba's Ayonna Proctor nailed a three-pointer at the buzzer and at intermission Elba went in with a 23-21 advantage.

Arton scored the first four points of the third quarter to regain the lead at 25-23 and held the lead until late in the stanza when Elba's Ayonna Proctor drained a three-pointer and followed it with a long jumper to pull the Lady Tigers even at 30-30 with 1:04 left in the quarter. Arton answered the Elba rally, however, and scored the final five points of the quarter to carry a 35-30 lead into the final quarter of play. The Lady Cats owned a 39-34 lead with 5:13 remaining in the fourth quarter and appeared ready to snap

ZION CHAPEL'S ABE CHILDS (22) waits for a rebound in the Rebels' loss to Luverne in the championship game of last week's Zion Chapel Christmas Tournament.

In Christmas Tourney

Rebels fall in finals

The Zion Chapel Rebels hosted the annual Zion Chapel Christmas Tournament last weekend at the Rebel gym and claimed one win in two games to claim second place in the four-team event.

The (2-7) Rebels opened the tournament with a 53-46 win over Arton, but fell to Luverne 59-44 in the finals to settle for the second place trophy.

Following are highlights of both games:

Z.C. 53 ARITON 46

The Zion Chapel Rebels used a big second quarter to pull ahead and turned back a late Arton rally to down the Purple Cats 53-46, in opening round action on Friday night.

Zion Chapel owned a slim 8-6 lead after one quarter, but began to pick up the pace on both ends of the court in the second quarter and outscored the Purple Cats 18-10 to go in at intermission with a 26-16 advantage.

The two rivals swapped baskets in the third quarter as the Rebels remained on top 37-27, but Zion Chapel had to fight until the final horn in the fourth quarter and turned back a late Arton rally to post the 53-46 win.

Josh Smith and Abe Childs both scored 13 points to lead Zion Chapel, while Luke Taylor added 10 points.

Z.C. (53): J. Smith 13, A. Smith 8, White 5, Taylor 10, Childs 13, Wise 4.

Arton (46): Vanzandi 6, Adams 9, Terry 5, Shepard 2, Reeves 8, Ward 5, Caple 2, M. Ward 9.

Luverne (59): McCreary 9, Hawkins 4, Hayes 4, Rogers 2, Burnett 12, Parker 10, Franklin 20.

Z.C. (44): J. Smith 4, A. Smith 14, White 2, Taylor 12, Sanders 1, McWaters 1, Leger 3, Childs 7.

The Zion Chapel Lady Rebels saw their hopes of keeping the championship trophy at home come to an abrupt end on Saturday night as the Luverne Tigers pulled ahead late in the first half and never looked back to down the Rebels 59-44.

The two teams swapped baskets for much of the opening stanza, with Zion Chapel moving on top 11-8 with 3:01 left in the quarter on a three-pointer by Luke Taylor. A Taylor free-throw gave the Rebels their biggest lead of the quarter at 12-8 with 2:03 remaining, but Luverne rallied and scored the final six points of the quarter to regain the lead at 14-12.

Luverne upped its advantage to 19-14 early in the second quarter, but the Rebels refused to back down and used a driving lay-up by Abe Childs and two free-throws by Jamey White to cut the lead to 19-18 with 6:36 remaining in the period. A 6-0 Luverne run put the Tigers back in charge with a 25-18 lead, and Luverne added another 6-0 run later in the quarter as the Tigers pulled ahead late and went in at the half with a 36-26 lead.

Luverne increased its lead to 40-26 early in the third quarter and took advantage of Zion Chapel's inability to convert from the free-throw line to open up a 46-32 lead heading into the fourth quarter. The Rebels managed only three field goals in the quarter, but missed out on a chance to stay close as they also struggled at the line, hitting only 4 of 10 free-throw opportunities.

Luverne came out on fire in the final stanza and scored seven unanswered points to blow the game open as the Tigers' lead grew to 51-32 with 6:07 remaining in the game. Luverne took its biggest lead at 55-33 with 4:48 left on the clock, and even though the Rebels rallied late and outscored Luverne 11-4 over the closing minutes, it was too little, too late as Zion Chapel absorbed the loss 59-44.

Luverne (59): McCreary 9, Hawkins 4, Hayes 4, Rogers 2, Burnett 12, Parker 10, Franklin 20.

Z.C. (44): J. Smith 4, A. Smith 14, White 2, Taylor 12, Sanders 1, McWaters 1, Leger 3, Childs 7.

Elba Tigers split week's action, record now 7-5

The Elba Tigers hit the court twice last week and posted one win and one loss to see their record move to 7-5 on the season. The Tigers opened the week's action in Straughn and rallied to escape with an exciting 58-55 overtime win, then traveled to Brantley late in the week and dropped a 52-49 decision to the Bulldogs on a last-second three-point basket.

Following are highlights of both games:

ELBA 58
STRAUGHN 55

The Elba Tigers opened area play on Monday night in Straughn and rallied from a big first quarter deficit to escape with a wild 58-55 overtime win.

The Tigers struggled on both ends of the court in the opening stanza and watched as Straughn opened up a whopping 20-4 lead midway through the quarter. Elba began to settle down late in the quarter and cut the lead to 24-12, then assumed command of the contest in the second quarter and outscored Straughn 18-4 to go in at the half with a 30-28 advantage.

Elba was able to increase its lead only slightly in the third quarter and carried a 41-38 lead into the final stanza, then battled until the final horn as Straughn rallied and pulled even at 51-51 to send the game into overtime. The Tigers' Matthew Curran scored all six of Elba's points in the extra period, and at the horn Elba had the wild win 58-55.

Matthew Curran scored 22 points to lead Elba, while Quinton Gavin added 10. Windham led Straughn with 20 points.

BRANTLEY 52
ELBA 49

The Elba Tigers saw a 12-point second half lead vanish as the Brantley Bulldogs rallied late to down the Tigers 52-49, Thursday night in Brantley.

Neither team could find its way to the basket in the early going as Brantley pulled out to a 4-3 lead with 4:37 left in the opening quarter, but Elba caught fire midway through the stanza and scored 14 straight points to open up a 17-4 lead with 2:34 remaining. Tiger sophomore Kikko Logan scored four points during the run on a driving lay-up and a tip-in to spark the Elba rally, while Quinton Gavin capped the run with a long three-pointer from deep in the corner.

A Quinton Gavin three-pointer with 6:16 left in the second quarter helped the Tigers up their lead to 22-8, while a three-pointer by Matthew Curran with 2:30 remaining in the half enabled Elba to take a 25-11 advantage.

A dunk by Brantley's Josh Daniels sparked a 4-0 Bulldog run that helped Brantley pull within 25-15 with 1:15 left, and Brantley got as close as 27-18 with 25 seconds remaining on a tip-in by Delange Harris, only to see the Tigers' Mason Gulley drain a long three-pointer with :03 remaining on the clock as Elba went in at the half with a 30-18 lead.

The Tigers remained in command early in the third quarter and owned a 36-24 lead with 6:28 remaining in the stanza after a short jumper by Quinton Gavin, but Elba scored only two points over the final six minutes of the quarter and by the end of the third quarter Brantley had rallied to chop the Tigers' lead to 36-31.

Elba upped its lead to 38-31 early in the fourth quarter on a basket by Mason Gulley and still led by seven points at 44-37 with 4:06 left after a short jumper by Marchello Reed. A three-pointer by Antwan Foster keyed a 5-0 Brantley run that pulled the Bulldogs within 44-42 with 2:33 remaining, and when Devin Person drilled a long three-pointer with 1:21 remaining the Bulldogs were back on top at 47-46 for the first time since the opening stanza.

Elba's Kikko Logan converted a three-point play with :44 left to pull Elba even at 49-49; however, the Bulldogs' Antwan Foster rose to the challenge and nailed a three-pointer with :15 remaining to put the 'Dogs back on top 52-49.

Elba called a time-out and had two open shots from behind the three-point line, but both shots missed, and the Bulldogs' Devin Person drilled a long three-pointer with :03 remaining to seal the win 52-49.

Quinton Gavin scored 17 points to lead Elba, while Marchello Reed added 11. Devin Person scored 17 points to lead Brantley.

Learn to blend with background to bag
a deer

I remember hearing a wildlife biologist make the statement that a deer's vision and a human's vision were approximately equal. I'm not qualified to argue with him scientifically on that statement, but I wonder if he has been around the same deer I have. Where I hunt deer, I'm convinced the deer would score higher on an eye exam than I.

His statement may be true if they are both looking straight ahead at the same object, but the deer has far superior peripheral vision. A deer's eyes protrude slightly and are set back one the side of the head. This positioning gives the deer a very wide field of view. They can see everywhere without moving their head with the exception of a small area directly behind the head. And even this area can be quickly observed with a slight turn of the head. They can see 360 degrees without moving from their tracks.

Another difference in human vision and a deer's is the ability of the deer to see well in low light conditions. The light cells in a deer's retina are predominately rods. This type of cell is geared to seeing in dim light so well that a deer can see well enough to be active 24 hours a day.

The human eye contains a mixture of rods and cones. Since our eye has more cones than a deer's, we can see color better than a deer. Also our eyes are set close together on the front portion of the skull and are set slightly back into the skull. This arrangement reduces our field of view, but enables both eyes to focus on a distant object at the same time. Because of this we have better depth perception than a deer and can distinguish objects from their background better than a deer can.

Since deer have an advantage of peripheral vision but the disadvantage of limited depth perception, hunters can take advantage of both. Make sure that your stand, whether on the ground or in a tree is not sky lighted. After placing a stand, walk out to where you assume you may see a deer, sit on the ground and look toward your stand. If you can see sky behind the seat rather than vegetation, it probably needs relocating.

To overcome a deer's peripheral vision (where they detect motion) one must be absolutely still and blend in with the background. Their limited depth perception often allows a hunter who is standing or sitting perfectly still in front of a good background to go undetected, even when wearing a hunter orange hat.

While their sense of smell and hearing may be better than their ability to see, they can still pick up a fidgity or sky lighted hunter quite a distance away. Hunters who blend with their background and remain motionless put the most trophies on the wall.

How much do you feed horses?

By Stan Windham, Coffee County Extension Agent

If you think about the quality of the feed you want in a horse, trimness, some spirit and endurance, and you want them to be athletic, these qualities absolutely cannot be attained with a large paunchy stomach. Also, a healthy condition is desired, but you really don't want a lot of excess fat. This is particularly true if you use your horses for performance such as team penning or roping.

The quantity of grain and hay required by horses depends upon several factors. One is, some horses are just "better keepers" than others. Some horses simply utilize their feed more efficiently than others do. As you might expect, a hard keeper is going to require more feed than an easy keeper does.

The horse's age, size and the overall condition of the animal will play an important part in how much feed they require.

The kind, regularity and amount of work that they perform. Whether it be herding cattle on Sunday afternoon, team penning, roping or simply being ridden every few weeks, will all weigh into how much they need to eat.

The weather has a lot to do with how much to feed a horse. If you live in North Dakota in the winter, you will need quite a bit more feed than you will need in south Alabama in the winter. The problem we face here on the Gulf Coast in the winter time particularly is one week they may require more feed than another week. When it is 70 degrees out, dry and pretty, they don't need a lot of extra feed. But, if it's rainy and 30 degrees they need extra feed.

The kind and the quality of feed that you are going to feed will dictate the amount of feed the horse will require. Along these same lines, the horse's health, condition and even his attitude has a lot to do with how much he needs to eat. Believe it or not a high strung nervous horse tends to require more feed to keep his body condition than a more laid back horse.

There are three guidelines that you can use in feeding horses. Please keep this in mind. A horse's digestive system is a very complex system to say the least. They have just enough digestive capacity to handle roughages and concentrates to get them in trouble. These guidelines are a starting place or a general rule of thumb for feeding horses. Consider your horse as an individual. Each one is going to be different.

For horses that are at light work, that would be roughly one to three hours of riding per day, allow anywhere from two fifths to one half pound of grain and one and one quarter to one and one half pounds of hay per day per hundred pounds of live weight.

For horses that are at light work, that would be roughly one to three hours of riding or driving allow three quarters to one pound of grain to one and one quarter pounds of hay per hundred pounds of live weight.

PURSUANT TO CONSENT DECREE

The Coffee County Board of Education hereby gives notice of a hearing which could result in the termination of the school desegregation case originally known as, Lee v. Macon County, et al. (Coffee County Board of Education) Civil Action No. 1054-M, United States District Court, Middle District of Alabama, Southern Division. In 1967, the Coffee County Board of Education was ordered to adopt a desegregation plan for the Coffee County Schools. In 1999, a Consent Decree was entered, establishing a process which, if successful, would result in a declaration that the Coffee County Board of Education had successfully completed the desegregation of its schools and that court supervision of the school system would end.

The Coffee County Board of Education has filed a motion requesting the Court to dismiss the case pursuant to the Consent Decree which would terminate the order and declare that it has achieved Unitary Status and that court supervision is no longer necessary. The attorney for the Plaintiffs has objected to this motion and the attorney for the United States has no outstanding objection. Copies of documents about this process are available for review at the Central Office of the Coffee County Board of Education located at 400 Reddick Hill Road, Elba, Alabama. These documents include the motion, the Consent Decree and the Annual Reports filed by the Board and may be viewed during regular business hours beginning on January 12, 2004.

Judge W. Harold Abritton, Chief United States District Judge, has scheduled a hearing for February 19, 2004 at 1:00 p.m., in the federal courthouse in Dothan, Alabama to determine whether or not the terms of the Board of Education should be granted. The hearing is open to the public and the court invites objections and comments from any interested parties. Written objections and comments should be made on forms which are available at the Central Office of the Board of Education and at the Principal's office at all Coffee County Public Schools. Written comments and objections must be submitted to the court at the address indicated on the form and must be postmarked no later than January 26, 2004. No person will be heard orally at the hearing unless that person has filed such a written objection or comment by that time.

If you have any questions, you may contact the Coffee County School Board representative: Chad Trindl at 334-347-2626; private plaintiff's counsel: Stanley F. Gray at 334-727-4830; or Counsel for the United States: John R. Moore at 202-514-4092.

A copy of this notice is to be provided to each parent or guardian of a student enrolled in the Coffee County School System and posted at all schools operated by the System and at the Board of Education's Central Office.

Just like one of those shows on television

Elba resident's son/specialty painter redesigns his mother's bedroom as gift

by Bethany Dye

It is not uncommon for people to redecorate rooms in their homes, but not so often does a professional volunteer to redecorate and charge the owner nothing.

Gene and Judy Eastburn have recently been so privileged. Judy's son, Jeff Huckaby, who is a specialty painter in Orlando, Fla., redecorated his mother's bedroom as a gift to her.

For about a year prior in his spare time, Huckaby bought and made pieces matching the theme he envisioned for the room.

This past summer, Eastburn rented a truck and traveled to Orlando to pick up numerous boxes containing the supplies Huckaby would use for the room.

She stored them in her garage for a few months until her son came to redo the bedroom during a three-week break between jobs.

At first, said Eastburn, Huckaby wasn't going to allow his mother to see any of his work before completion, but she insisted on being in the room some of the time while he worked so they could spend time together.

Eastburn was present to watch Huckaby paint the room, but she saw nothing else until he finished.

"It was like the TV show 'While You Were Out,'" Eastburn said.

She said her son had never before painted a room the color he painted hers.

Huckaby began with a pinkish paint, but after eight coats and a special wash, the bedroom walls became the rich red hue he envisioned.

Huckaby worked long hours

fixing up the room, and his sister traveled from Destin, Fla., to help him two weekends while the Eastburns waited, still not knowing what to expect.

After her son's work was done, Eastburn saw the final product.

"I thought I would die," she said. "It was so beautiful. I never could imagine that somebody could do something like that for me. It was just so special to me."

Huckaby changed everything in the room except for the carpet and the furniture, and he even made some modifications to that.

He specifically imagined every detail, from the tiny beads on the throw pillows to the plant stand legs that had been welded according to his design.

Eastburn said the plates hanging on the wall over the bed are her favorite part of the room.

She said instead of buying the ones he found online for $175 per plate, her son made plates himself.

He bought white bowls, made braiding and designs to glue on, and painted them.

While he was there, Huckaby also redecorated the Eastburns' master bathroom.

He fixed the walls by applying a sparkling paint job and hand painting a border to cover up where Judy had been working on tearing the wallpaper down.

He also sewed the shower curtain and added various other accents and ornaments to the bathroom to tie it together with the new bedroom décor.

Gene said before he saw the finished room, he was afraid that it would be feminine, but his worries disappeared after Huckaby's work was done.

"I was kind of skeptical, but once he completed it, it was very impressive," he said. "We're quite proud of him. He's got a talent."

Judy said her son has always displayed an artistic talent, but he refused to take art classes even as a young child, saying that he didn't want anyone to influence his style or tell him what to make and how.

After moving to Orlando in 1986, Huckaby worked at Disney World for 11 years, first as a character and then as a person who leads characters around.

During his time there, Disney sponsored a contest for employees to submit ideas for new rides or restaurants by drawing up plans for the attraction and how it would work.

Huckaby's design for a Polynesian restaurant won the contest, and he was invited to work in Disney's engineering department in California.

According to his mother, Huckaby reached a turning point while working in California because he realized he didn't want anyone instructing him on what to do.

He left Disney and started his specialty painting business in Orlando, and has since painted rooms in multi-million dollar homes, she said.

In his spare time, Huckaby also paints and sells individual pieces of artwork, a few of which the Eastburns currently display in their living room.

To see more pictures of Huckaby's work, visit his Web site at: <http://www.cookchevrolet.com/~jeffhuckaby/jeff.htm>
